

Cotton Incorporated
Crop Management Seminar
Tunica, Mississippi – November 8, 2012

Variety Selection –
1st Decision and Potentially the Most Important

Cotton Producer's Top Issues

2011 Survey

1. Production Costs

2. Weeds Resistance

3. Variety selection

4. Stress Tolerance

2011 Producer Survey

- Key Research Issues -

Percent Growers Who Ranked Issue in Top 5

---

	SE	Mid	SW	FW	U.S.
Input Costs	66	64	73	70	69
Resistant Weeds	76	73	34	23	54
Variety Selection	41	36	44	53	42

---

Beltwide Coordination of Variety Evaluation

- Commercial varieties may come to the market with no public evaluation
  - Cotton Incorporated Initiative -
- 1st year – Selected entries entered in large-plot replicated strip trials.
- 2nd year – Management trials evaluate adaptation (+/- irrigation) and management (vegetative vigor, maturity)

Variety Selection

- Introduction – Bob Nichols
- Replicated Strip – Trial Program – Guy Collins
- Adaptation and Management of New Cultivars – Darrin Dodds
- Test Results Using the SeedMatrix Program
  - Dale Logan
- Bacterial Blight – Field Trash or Seed?
  - Tom Allen